AFFIDAVIT IN REBUTTAL of AFFIDAVIT FOR LUIS F. UGAZ

PLEASE TAKE NOTICE, that Sherrie Hampton-Muhamed, your Affiant and the undersigned, with personal knowledge of matters set forth herein, one of the people of Georgia, in correct public capacity, being of majority in age, competent to testify with clean hands, without waiving any rights, remedies, or defenses declares, verifies and affirms that the facts stated herein are true, correct, and complete in all material fact, not misrepresented and made under the penalties of perjury of the laws of the united States of America and the State of Georgia, except those statements of fact made upon information and belief, and as to those statements, the undersigned believes them to be true:

1. I am a consumer who has filed an Amended Complaint for Fair Debt Collection Practices Act ("FDCPA") violations and am disputing the debt in my Amended Complaint to curtail Ronald R. Wolfe's ("RRW") abusive debt collection practices and therefore dispute the items below in the affidavit:

2. Item #3 states that Attorney Ugaz handles foreclosure actions in Florida for RRW. Attorney Ugaz is acting in the capacity of a debt collector. Affiant's Complaint is about Attorney Ugaz's actions in relation to debt collection for an alleged debt Affiant does not owe, in violation of FDCPA, 15 USC 1692, et seq., which has nothing to do with foreclosure.

3. Affiant disputes Item #7. Attorney Ugaz states he did not commit a tortious injury in Georgia. However, the intense infliction of emotional distress affiant experienced in Georgia created by the lawsuit and Attorney Ugaz' actions was a tortious injury. If Attorney Ugaz was primary attorney on the file he should have known that his client's felony trespass and theft had not been addressed or reported to the proper parties, since the activity continued. Anyone who knows a fact is a violation of law and does nothing, or delegates to another, or commits the act themselves is guilty of misprision of felony. Also as primary attorney, Attorney

Ugaz should have known that Attorney Croteau, representing RRW, also had ex-parte hearings on July 8, 2014 and September 23, 2014 and conspired with the Judge to violate Florida statutes to force affiant to Florida for a deposition. Anyone who knowingly violates the federal law or federal statute becomes personally liable and has no protection regardless of the corporate veil.

4. Affiant disputes Item # 7. As primary attorney on the file Attorney Ugaz actually did do business in Georgia by taking action on the alleged debt of the affiant. When Attorney Ugaz reached across the Florida state line into Georgia, in attempt to collect a debt, even though the principle location of the alleged debt is in Missouri, Attorney Ugaz and RRW are in effect, in fact conducting business in Georgia. RRW sent a process server to serve process upon affiant in Georgia. Attorney Ugaz and other attorneys of RRW mailed to affiant's address in Georgia continued communication in attempts to collect a debt. In attempts to collect a debt that was extinguished by the borrower's death, Attorney Ugaz, representing RRW, continued to provide false and misleading information to the tribunal in attempts to collect a debt in Georgia that was disputed and never validated. (15 USC 1692e and 1692g(b)).

5. Affiant disputes #10 where Attorney Ugaz states that the Amended Complaint he reviewed was about the prosecution of a foreclosure action. This again is a distraction from the actual debt collection. The Amended Complaint is about Attorney Ugaz's behavior and conduct in his attempts to collect a debt from affiant that is not affiant's responsibility. Attorney Ugaz attempted to attach to the affiant the debt of a dead man, when he should have known full well that said debt was extinguished at death. Attorney Ugaz continued to provide false and misleading information to the tribunal and continued to pursue debt collection without validating the debt in violation of federal statutes for Fair Debt Collection Practices.

6. Affiant disputes Item #11 Attorney Ugaz stated she had primary responsibility in the subject foreclosure. Affiant's Amended Complaint was about Attorney Ugaz's actions related to debt collection, not foreclosure. It appears that Attorney Ugaz is attempting to distract the court with issues of foreclosure instead of allowing the court to focus on violations of FDCPA. It also appears that Attorney Ugaz along with others in the law firm are trying to pass the liability and responsibility on to someone else so that Ugaz cannot be held liable for the violations of federal law. If anyone at RRW could attend hearings based on who was available, then how is affiant supposed to know who actually created the documents, whether they were diligent in handling the case, and who is responsible for the debt collection actions. Attorney Ugaz is again referring to conduct regarding a foreclosure, but Affiant's Complaint is about debt collection and Attorney Ugaz's behavior, or lack thereof, related to debt collection. Presumably Attorney Ugaz would have read the pleadings and supporting documents, which would have led her to the conclusion that Affiant does not have a personal legal relationship with James B Nutter & Co. or Ronald R. Wolfe & Assocs.

7. Affiant disputes Item #12 where Attorney Ugaz states no acts were committed by her in Georgia. Affiant states that any action on this file is business activity in Georgia and in order to pursue the debt collection and according to the long arm statute, Attorney Ugaz had to reach into Georgia.

8. Affiant disputes Item #13 where Attorney Ugaz states she should not be subject to a lawsuit in Georgia. If Attorney Ugaz does not want to be subject to suit in Georgia, she should not have conducted business in Georgia or violate the federal statutes while conducting business in Georgia.

Further, Affiant sayeth naught.
